Dedication

We, the staff of Le Diable Bleu of 1959, dedicate this yearbook to a lady of great wisdom and dignity—a loyal and trusted friend to hundreds of Dillard students, beloved and respected by all who know her.

For her services, we cannot hope to repay her. We cannot hope even to thank her appropriately for the kindness and understanding that she has so freely given to so many.

This dedication, in a very small way, indicates our esteem and affection for a great lady: Mrs. Fannie R. Ridgeway.

The President

Dr. Albert W. Dent has been associated with Dillard University since its conception. When it was decided to merge New Orleans University and Straight College, the planners of Dillard University, the successor institution, chose Mr. Dent as business manager.

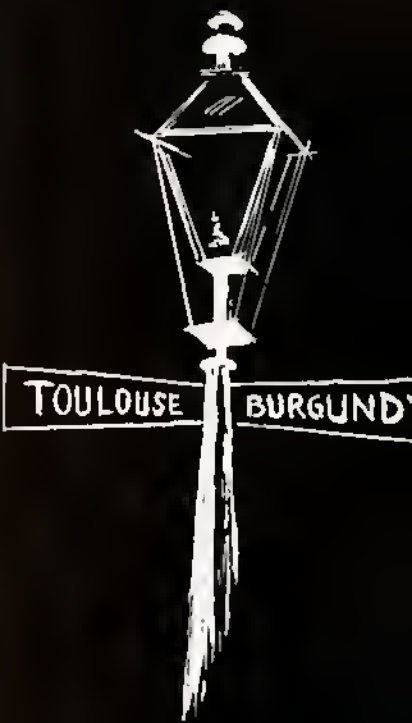

He witnessed the laying of the first brick on the new campus, saw the completion of the first building, and greeted the first class in the fall of 1935 to enroll in the University.

In 1941, the trustees of Dillard University elected Mr. Dent president, a position he has filled with great distinction for eighteen years.

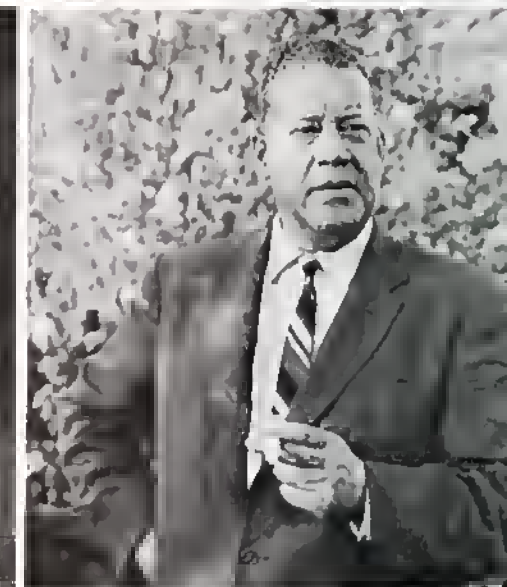

At that time, Dillard's plant consisted of seven major buildings, the faculty numbered twenty-six and the student body 309. Under Dr. Dent's dynamic and far-sighted leadership the campus has grown to include fifteen major buildings, the faculty and student body have been more than tripled.

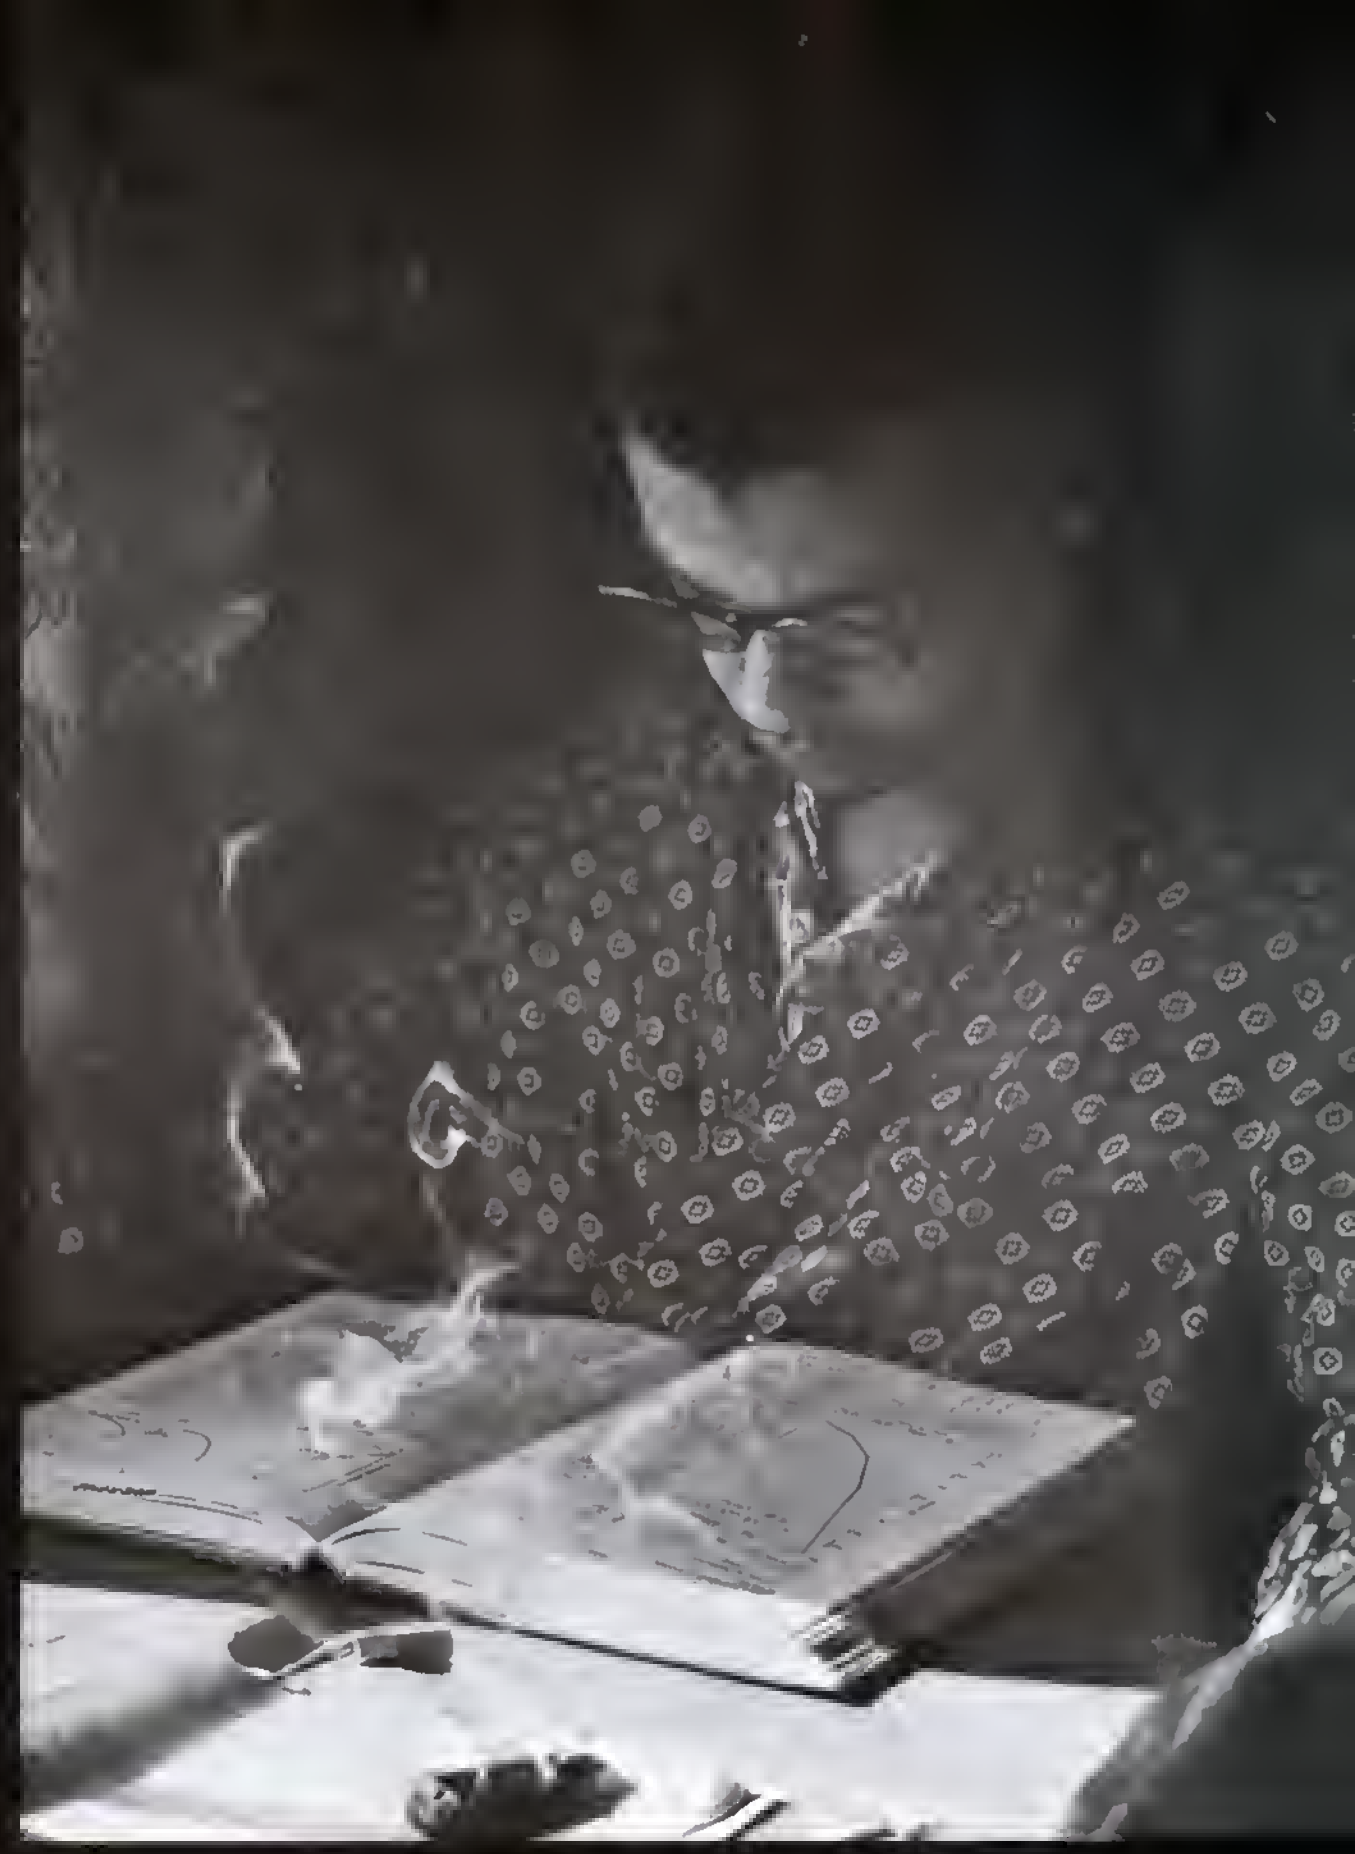

Dr. Dent is well-known, also, as a hospital administrator. He served for ten years as superintendent of Flint-Gunnridge Hospital, a unit of the University. He is a past president of the National Health Council and of the National Conference of Hospital Administrators. He was a member of the United States delegations to the World Health Organization, meeting in Geneva in 1948, in Mexico City in 1955, and in Minneapolis, Minnesota, in 1958.

President Dent, we know, is proud of Dillard University—and Dillard University, we want him to know, is proud of its president.

ADMINISTRATORS . . .

Definition of an Administrator

The person who admits you, takes your money, finds you a room, watches over your health, guides your career, finds you a job, lends you a book, prays with you, arranges your schedule, gives you excuses from class, sends you on your way, and later welcomes you back as an alumnus.

MR. ERNEST C. WAGNER
Librarian

MR. JOHN A. COOPER
Business Manager

BLUE DEVILS COP SECOND PLACE

Coach Armstead A. Pierro's Blue Devils, sparked by such fine players as Thomas Letcher, Ernest Black, Captain Johnnie Williams, Napoleon Benoit and freshman sensation Billie G. Williams, took second place in the Gulf Coast Athletic Conference. The Devils won the conference championship in '57, but hit especially hard by graduation, the predominantly freshman squad of '58 had to be satisfied with second place and a 3-1 conference record. The overall season record was 4-4-1.

The first game of the season, against Philander Smith College, played at Little Rock, was fought to a 12-12 tie. The opening home game was lost to Bishop College, 12-6. Bishop subsequently won the conference championship. D. U. spirits rose when, in the next encounter played on home territory, the Devils downed Morehouse, long a gridiron rival, 12-6. Students joined the thousands of alumni and friends in the jubilation that followed Fisk's rout to a score of 25-8 at the Homecoming game.

Texas College upset the Blue Devils in Tyler 32-0, but in the next contest, against Tougaloo at New Orleans, Dillard rolled over the Mississippians 37-0. Rust next fell before the Dillard onslaught, 24-8, on our territory. Tuskegee, in the final minutes of a hard-fought game, edged the Blue Devils out of a victory, 14-13.

The thirteenth Annual Turkey Day Classic between the Dillard Blue Devils and the Xavier Gold Rush saw last year's victors defeated 14-6, thus returning the famous Bone of Contention to the Priestley squad.

Dillard boosters are optimistic about next year, and they have every right to be. By then, such freshman standouts as William Watkins, Johnny Cunningham, Willie Minnard, Billie G. Williams, Eugene Polk, Clifford Robinson and others will have had a year of college gridiron experience behind them. And such veterans as Captain Johnnie Williams, Thomas Letcher, Napoleon Benoit, Lee Moore, Melford Spooner, Joe Jackson and William Clark will again provide leadership and experience. Yes, it will be a fine team next year.

Highlight of the gridiron season was the Homecoming game with Fisk University. The Blue Devils exploded for four TD's to trounce the Bulbogs 25-8 before a wildly enthusiastic crowd of students, alumni, friends and well-wishers.

Thomas Letcher, the Devils' versatile right half-back, broke the scoring ice when he got away for an exciting forty-five yard TD run up the middle. Billie G. Williams went over from the one yard line for the score, climaxing a fifty-one yard drive by the Devils. Half-back Ernest Black ran an eighty-five yard kickoff return, and Lawrence Gilson scored on a forty-seven yard run for the final touchdown.

The Dillard Blue Devils started the season with only six returning lettermen: William Sherron, 6'1" guard from Chicago, sophomore; Ralph Laster, 6'5" All-Conference forward from Los Angeles, sophomore; Charles Ford, 6'3" forward from Morgan City, La., junior; Robert Williamson, 5'11" guard from Chicago, sophomore; Alvin Turner, 6'3" forward from New Orleans, junior; and Thomas Letcher, 6'2" forward from Chicago, junior. The nine remaining players were freshman hopefuls. Coach Bill Martin, with determination and high hopes, developed this team into champions in just one season by winning the Gulf Coast Athletic Conference championship.

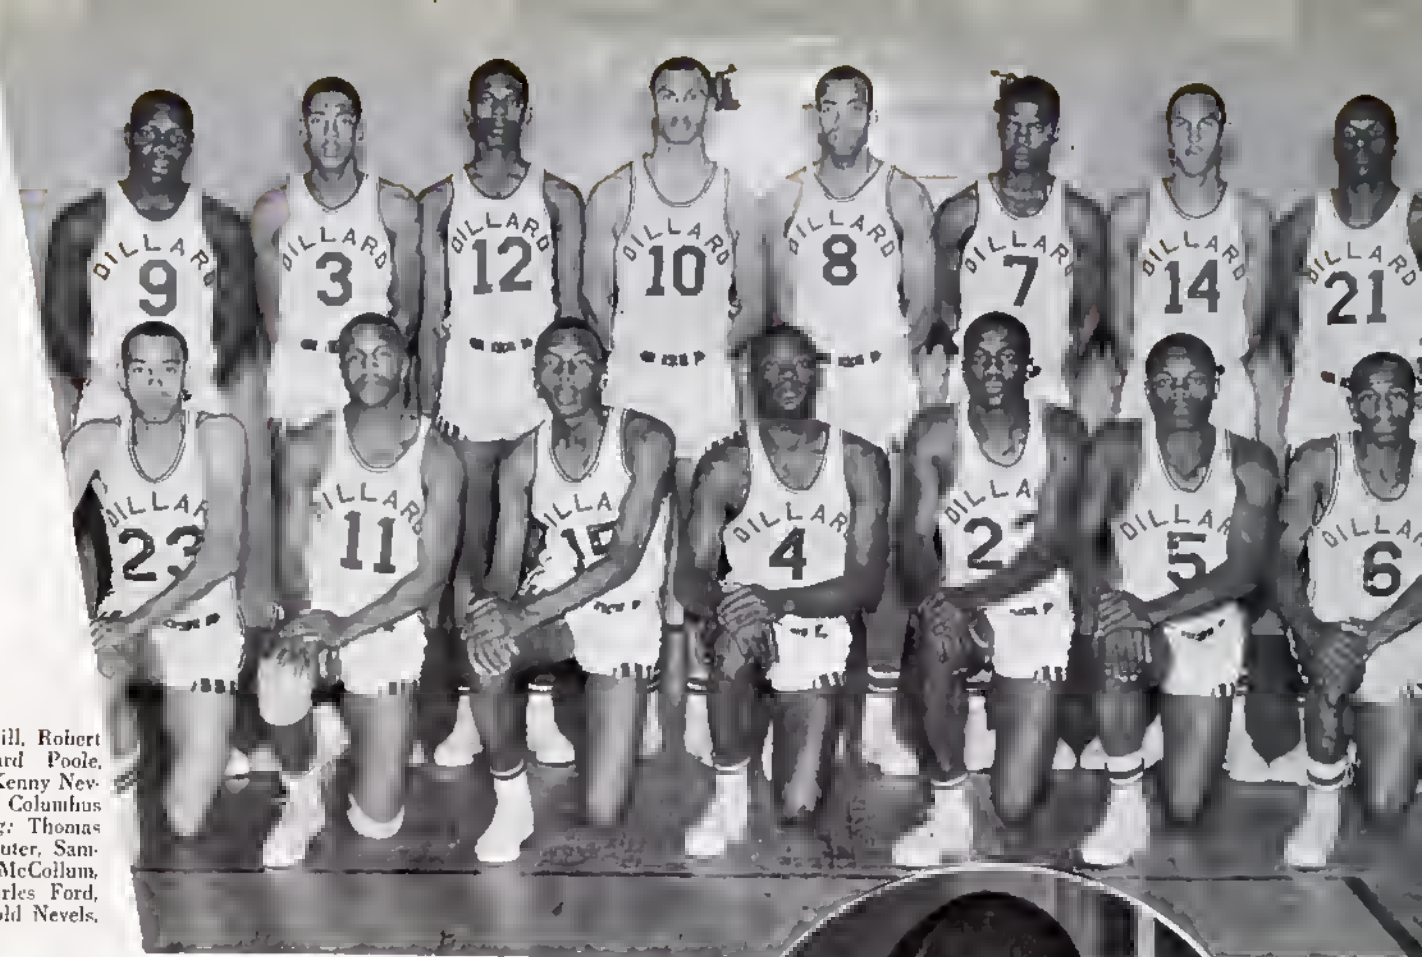

The high-scoring Devils also had a banner year against their cross-town rivals, the Xavier University Gold Rush, defeating them three times.

The Devils came up with three prize freshmen: Carl McCollum, 6'6" forward from Chicago, who led the team in rebounds and was one of the top scorers; Kenny Nevels, 6' guard from Detroit, also one of the top scorers; and Alton Gill, a sharp-shooting 5'11" guard from Chicago, who proved a big gun in Dillard's winning season.

ENGLISH CLUB

The English Club is composed of a group of students hand-ed together by their literary interests and their desire to develop professional attitudes by joining the National Council of Teachers of English. The English Club encourages English majors to learn more about English, stimulates the interest of all members of the club in reading and develops skills in reading different types of literature.

The English Club activities consisted of speakers such as Dr. Irwin Swerdlow and Dr. Lou LaBrant, former president of the National Council of Teachers of English, book reports and a chapel program—"Why Read Poetry?"

BETA UPSILON CHAPTER

The purpose of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority is to promote high scholarship and ethical standards, and to bring unity and friendship among college women.

Beta Upsilon Chapter, as one link in Alpha Kappa Alpha's long chain, was founded in 1938 by eleven women who subscribed to the sorority's ideals. Today, there are twenty active young women who strive to uphold in all things the high standards of Alpha Kappa Alpha.

The chapter this year sponsored a Sadie Hawkins dance for the benefit of the New Orleans Urban League, it donated baby clothes to Flint-Goodridge Hospital for needy infants, and participated generally in the civic and social life of the campus and community. One of the chapter's major projects was the raising of funds for a scholarship to a deserving young woman.

BETA PHI CHAPTER

Any college man who is willing to dedicate himself to and abide by the noble precepts of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity is eligible for membership. The purpose of the fraternity is succinctly stated in its motto: "First of all, servants of all, we shall transcend all."

Alpha Phi Alpha holds that man can only realize and fulfill his ultimate self by transcending himself through service to his fellows.

The Brothers of Beta Phi are justly proud of the fact that over half of the membership of the fraternity is on the Honor Roll and one Brother is a member of Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society.

Each year Beta Phi Chapter sponsors the following projects: a Christmas party for orphans of St. John Berchman's Orphanage, scholarship presentations to outstanding Freshmen, and donations to various charitable organizations in the community.

ALPHA BETA CHAPTER

Zeta Phi Beta Sorority founded in 1920 at Howard University, boasts of over two hundred graduate and undergraduate chapters. Alpha Beta Chapter has twenty-one active members who are striving to uphold the Sorority's ideals of sisterly love, scholarship, humanitarian service, and "Finer Womanhood."

Among Alpha Beta's many community and campus projects are an annual "Easter Fest" for St. John Berchman's Orphanage and serving as hostess sorority to visiting football teams. Each year in February a week is designated as the "Zeta Finer Womanhood Week," during which many programs and other activities are held. At this time, an outstanding Zeta of the community is honored as the "Zeta Woman of the Year." In addition, the Sorority selects a "Zeta Girl of the Year," usually an outstanding freshman who displays the characteristics of an ideal young woman.

THETA SIGMA CHAPTER

Believing that men of similar ideals and principles should bind themselves together in a common bond of brotherhood, Omega Psi Phi Fraternity was founded November 17, 1911 at Howard University. Its four cardinal principles are: Manhood, Scholarship, Perseverance, and Up-lift.

Theta Sigma Chapter, founded in 1936, has been walking proudly in the footsteps of its founders, realizing the great responsibility that the future holds for its members as leaders of tomorrow. Theta Sigma always stresses brotherhood and true friendship as the key to happiness and the freedom of mankind.

During the year, Theta Sigma Chapter has sponsored various activities endeavoring to make the dreams and visions of its founders become a reality, keeping always in mind the National Achievement Week theme, "Moral and Spiritual Values, America's Greatest Need."

OMICRON CHAPTER

Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority was organized November 12, 1922 in Indianapolis, Indiana, as a teachers' sorority. However, due to the feeling that there was a need to further the cause of higher education generally among college women, Sigma Gamma Rho became an incorporated collegiate sorority on December 30, 1929. The charter was granted to Alpha Chapter at Butler University in Indianapolis. Omicron Chapter was chartered in 1940.

The purpose of the sorority is expressed in its slogan, "Greater service, greater progress."

Some of its activities are: a national literary contest among high schools and colleges, a National "Teen Town" to assist in combating juvenile delinquency, and a scholarship program.

BETA GAMMA CHAPTER

Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity is comprised of 201 functioning undergraduate and alumni chapters and boasts of a membership of 24,000. The organization was founded January 5, 1911 at Indiana University, Bloomington, and is proud that the constitution which its founders drafted more than forty years ago contains no clause which excludes, or suggests exclusion of membership on the basis of race. The constitution is predicated upon and dedicated to the principles of achievement through a truly democratic fraternity.

Courthouillon, the campus newspaper, is published monthly by the students of Dillard University. Courtbouillon is the "Voice of the Dillard Students": it voices their opinions and beliefs without the influence of either the administration or faculty.

For students interested in a career in journalism or creative writing, Courtbouillon provides for them both an opportunity and experience in self-expression.
